Foreword

This 1940 edition of the "Tiger" is intended as a memory book for the graduates of the class of 1940. With this purpose in mind, the staff has endeavored to place on these pages the maximum of pictures and writeups typical of your days at "Dear Old X."

As the years go by, we trust that the "Tiger" will increase in its value to you; that whenever you turn its pages, you will relive the days you spent at St. Xavier.

And now, gentlemen, we give you the 1940 "Tiger".

THE STAFF

Dedication

.....to the hope of peace.

We dedicate this 1940 edition of the "Tiger" to all those, who, in a world torn with war and hate are striving for peace; and especially to the pontiff who has so courageously lifted his voice for the cause of right and against the ruthless barbarism of warring powers—Pope Pius XII.

the chapel

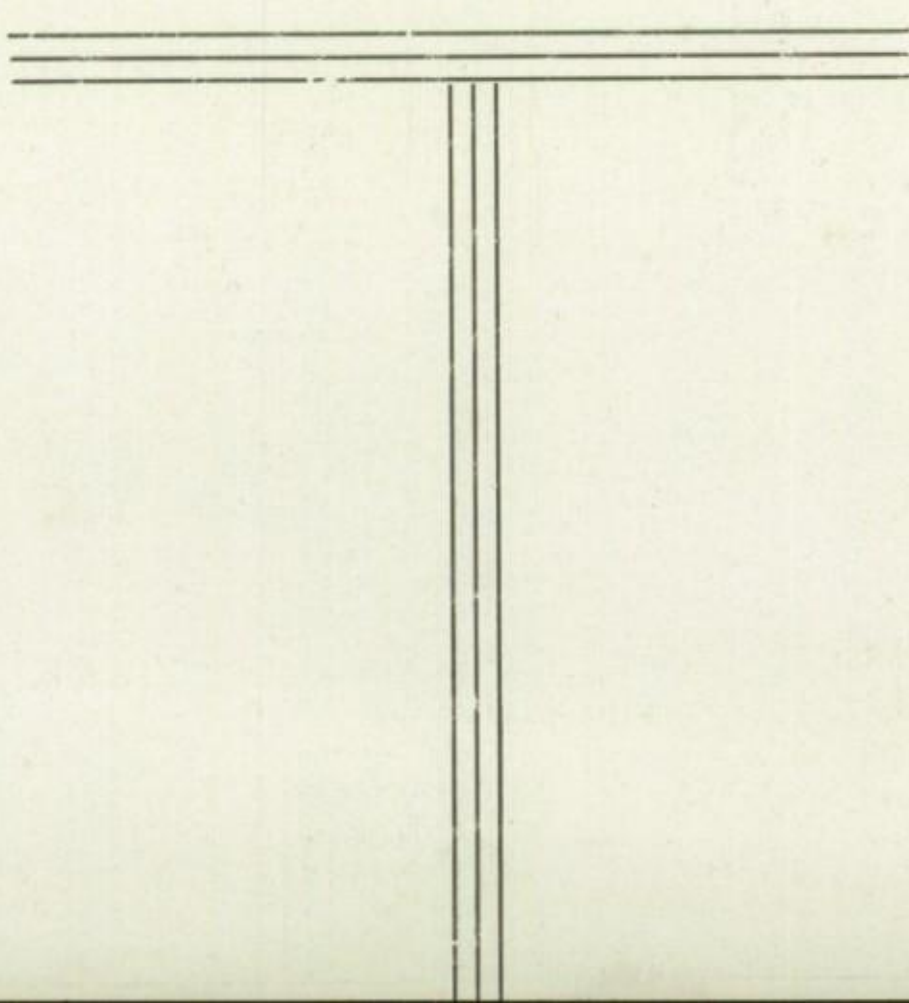

The heart of St. Xavier is the chapel whence emanate the rays of light that guided us from day to day throughout our four years.
Here we found encouragement, inspiration, strength and the peace that can come only from the Prince of Peace.

My pleasure in extending you congratulations on your graduation is equalled only by my hopes for your future. May you continue through life as real St. Xavier men and real St. X. boosters. May your future endeavors reflect credit on your alma mater. God bless you.

message

My Dear Graduates:

Congratulations and best wishes on the occasion of your graduation from St. Xavier High School.

After your graduation, you will turn your thoughts toward new and broader fields of endeavor. Many of you will further your studies at colleges or universities to prepare for the priesthood or brotherhood; others will prepare for the various professions or fields of business administration; while others will strive to perfect themselves in the industrial arts. Whatever be your vocation, let your Catholic Faith animate your life. Strive to be an intellectual Catholic—one who really knows his Faith, who loves it, who lives it daily; one who loves to tell others what a glorious thing it is to be a Catholic.

In these days of turmoil and strife among nations and peoples, we have also the astounding evils of wrong thinking and false teaching in our institutions of higher learning with the result that men and women, and particularly the youth of the nation, are being misdirected about the very essentials of life and religion. The outlook of such upon life is vague and oftentimes morose, because they have been misguided by leaders and teachers, who should have inspired them with better, more beautiful, and with more noble things of life. The graduates from a Catholic high school should have no fears of present day evils, and they will not so long as Catholic principles are their guides in all that pertains to faith and morals.

My dear graduates, go into the world determined to be an intellectual and militant Catholic—the kind of Catholic that your Church, country, parents, school and teachers will be proud of and refer to us as an ideal American Catholic Citizen.

Yours devotedly always,

Four Fleeting Years

The First Year

1936-1937—We were Freshmen! Brother Benignus was Director of Studies and Brother Benjamin was Principal. On November 1, Brother Dionysius died suddenly and, on a snowy day, the entire student body heard Mass at St. Boniface's for the repose of his soul. In February, 1937, the unforgettable Ohio Valley flood disrupted school for a period of weeks and damaged many homes of boys in this class. Mid-year exams were dispensed with when school finally resumed and returning students found that the water had damaged basement typing and lab rooms. In May, the Freshman Field Day was held at Shawnee Park. Paulie Miller won the 100-yard dash and baseball throwing contest, while Jack McSweeney won the 220. The Freshman Relay was won by 1A, but IH amassed the greatest number of points.

World events to be associated with this period include: The maritime workers' strike on the Pacific Coast; the inauguration of President Roosevelt for a second term; the New London, Texas, school explosion, which killed 293; the destruction of the dirigible "Hindenburg"; and the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth of England. The academy award motion picture for 1936-1937 was "The Life of Emile Zola" and Spencer Tracy was acclaimed for work in "Captains Courageous." In the world of sports, the New York Yankees defeated the New York Giants four games to two to win the 1936 World Series; Pittsburgh defeated Washington 21-0 in the 1937 Rose Bowl; and War Admiral romped home with the 1937 Kentucky Derby.

* * *

The Second Year

1937-1938—Sophomores now! A new principal, Brother William, and a new building, Freshman Hall, greeted the eleven hundred and fifty boys who entered St. X this year. Bernie Crimmins led the Tiger footballers, and several new clubs, including the Camera Club and the Stamp Club, were formed. The year was climaxed in March, 1938, when the St. Xavier basketball team, coached by Bob Schuhman, won the National Catholic Basketball Tournament at Chicago, for the third time. On the team were three members of the class of '40—Jim Ewing, Tommy Geisler and Paulie Miller. The team, feted by state, city and religious dignitaries, was received by the public at the Armory, and a special edition of "The Xavier News" was issued in its honor. Earl Gerhard, class of '40, won top honors in the State Achievement test in Geometry. Sophomore Field Day results listed Jack McSweeney as winner of the 100-yard dash, Charles Wathen as winner of the 220, Class 2A as carrying away honors in the tug-of-war and softball contests, and 2E as the winning class. Thus ended our second year at St. Xavier's.

It was during this period that Italy gave notice of her withdrawal from the League of Nations; Germany took over Austria, and the Richard Whitney Wall Street scandal came to light. Spencer Tracy again won the Academy Award, this time for his part in "Boy's Town." Bette Davis was lauded for "Jezebel," and a special award was given Walt Disney for "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," the first feature length cartoon. The New York Yankees took the 1937 World Series from the New York Giants, four games to one; Lawrin won the 1938 Kentucky Derby; and California defeated Alabama 13-0 in the 1938 Rose Bowl game.

The Third Year

1938-1939—As Juniors, we began the second half of our schooling at St. Xavier's. When classes resumed on September 5, 1938, Brother Adalbert was the new Director of Studies, Brother Rudolph was athletic director, and Brother Sylvanus was athletic business manager. Joe Celetti captained the 1938 Tiger football team, whose greatest feat was the conquest of the Male High Bulldogs. The Booster Club was organized and promoted many class history

activities, finally donating a new loud speaker unit to the school. The Marconi Science Club also came into existence this year. The jubilee spirit prevailed throughout the second semester as 1939 was the centennial year of the Xaverian Brothers, the seventy-fifth year of the Xaverian Brothers in Louisville, and Brother Columba celebrated his Silver Jubilee in April. Following the Junior Field Day in May, our third year at St. Xavier's came to an end.

Memorable events of this time include: The New England hurricane; Germany's annexation of Czechoslovakia; the death of Pope Pius XI and the election of Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli, who took the name Pius XII, as his successor; Italy's seizure of Albania and the United States Government's official recognition of the Franco nationalist regime in Spain. Mickey Rooney was the star of the year and the outstanding picture was "Good-bye Mr. Chips." "The Three Little Fishes" was the novelty song hit that everyone was singing towards the close of the year. The 1938 World Series found the Chicago Cubs going down before the New York Yankees in four straight games; Duke succumbed before the Trojans of California, 7 to 3, in the 1939 Rose Bowl; and Johnstown was the winner of the 1939 Kentucky Derby.

The Fourth Year

1939-1940—At long last—Seniors! Eleven hundred and forty-six boys enrolled at St. Xavier High School in September, 1939. This entire student body heard a special Mass of the Holy Ghost at the Cathedral of the Assumption soon after the beginning of the semester. Class elections followed soon and Pat Lenahan, captain of the Tiger football team, was elected generalissimo president of the student body. Knobby Walsh and Tommy Geisler were elected generalissimo vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively. At the head of the St. Xavier Student Council was Phil Muldoon. Two Senior C.S.M.C. study clubs were organized and met throughout the year. The St. John Bosco Club was organized with Brother John Joseph at its head to assist boys in selecting their vocations.

The Marconi Science Club this year elected Earl Gerhard as its president and later in the year gave a special science exhibit in the school auditorium. The P.E.P. Club replaced last year's Booster organization and had as its president, Charles Clark. The club sponsored several dances, one a special dance for the Seniors held in the St. Xavier gym. The P.E.P. Club also sponsored the first girls' pep rally ever held in the St. Xavier gym. The Music Appreciation Club was organized. The Rev. Cyril Georges, a former student at St. Xavier, was retreat master at the annual retreat for the Seniors and Juniors. Brother Adalbert was stricken with an attack of appendicitis and was forced to undergo an operation. Thomas Geisler captained the St. X cagers who won the seventh regional tournament, bowed out in the State to the eventual winner of the State Championship, and then travelled to Newport, R. I., for the Eastern States Catholic Invitational Basketball Tournament, where it lost to one of the best teams in the East. Then came the round of activities, exams, ceremonies and formalities terminating with graduation.

The New York Yankees won the 1939 World Series four games to none against the Cincinnati Reds. The Louisville Colonels surprised the world when they defeated Rochester four games to three to cop the Little World Series. Southern California defeated Tennessee in the 1939 Rose Bowl by the score of 14-0, and Galahadion was the winner of the 1940 Kentucky Derby.

This final year was a war year. War swept across Europe like a scourge, involving England, Poland, France, Germany, Russia, Denmark, Norway, Belgium, Netherlands, Finland, and other countries. President Roosevelt provoked a nation-wide controversy when he proclaimed the third Sunday in November (November 23) Thanksgiving Day instead of the traditional last Thursday in November date. "Gone With the Wind" was the motion picture that everyone was talking about and the wee voice of "Wee Bonnie" Baker made "Oh, Johnny Oh" the national anthem.

Special credit should be given to these members of the class of '40, who were on the honor roll throughout their four years here.

messages from the presidents

by Pat Lenahan president of 4-D

Several things have impressed me during my four years here at St. Xavier. Among them is the way that the teachers have cooperated with the boy in matters both in and out of class. I think that I will be indebted to the Brothers for all the rest of my life, for all that they have done for me. Then, too, all my companions here at "X" have been very friendly both in and out of class. All in all, I am glad that I selected St. X. as the high school in which to spend the past four years.

by Augie Di Chiara president of 4-E

I pick St. X. as the best school for any boy to undergo the proper training for making a success of life. I base this opinion on my observations and experiences at "X" during the past four years.

by Pat Cain president of 4-C

St. Xavier is the best school in the country, as far as I am concerned, and I urge all boys who intend to go to high school to attend it. Never during the past four years have I regretted my decision to go to St. X. and the days I spent there will be among my most treasured memories.

by Clyde Graven president of 4-F

St. X. is a good school. The boys that go there are the finest, to my mind. There is a splendid spirit of cooperation between student and teacher. However, there is one change that I believe should be made. I think that St. X. should be co-ed.

by Thomas Geisler president of 4-B

Even though, St. Xavier ranks above other schools in every field, as far as I am concerned, there is one thing more than anything else that distinguishes "X" from other schools. That is the religious instruction given here. Religion is the backbone of character and without it, there can be no real success, even though we win the entire world.

by Charlie Johnson president of 4-A

The period that separates Freshman from Graduate is very brief and I believe that most Seniors will agree with this view. The value of that period is determined by the way that we utilize each single minute of it. St. X. offered us everything that we needed to get ahead. Now we must ask ourselves the question: "Did I get all that I could have gotten out of my four years in high school?"

The Coming Years

1940—Half of the class of '40, Earl Evans included, enters college. Other half starts looking for jobs.

1944—Half of class of '40 that went to college, graduates and join other half who are still looking for jobs. Earl Evans is still a Freshman.

1948—Phil Muldoon becomes the youngest chief of police in the history of Louisville. Francis McWayne is employed as a door-to-door salesman for a shoe polish concern. Pat Lenahan signs up with the New York Yankees. Augie DiChiara opens up a fruit stand on Broadway. Evans is now a Sophomore.

1950—Thomas Rhodes, press agent for the Big Top Circus, releases a story featuring Warren von Roenn, circus bandmaster, and Wallace Spalding, master of ceremonies in the big tent. This is the year that Horsey Graven opens his new beer factory and hires Knobby Walsh as chief taster. Earl Evans awakes, forgets all he knows, and is Freshman again.

1955—Tommy Geisler won a screen test and is now starring in Darryl F. Zanuck's screen version of Jim Ewing's best seller, "Why Fiddlesicks Fiddle." Bud McNally is now coach of the Edentide basketball team. Joe Lieber is a florist of the first water. James Simpson is manager of the Uptown Theatre. Charles Clark, the chemist, has discovered a cure for sleepiness in class. "Impossible," exclaim eminent students and teachers. Earl Evans is again a Sophomore.

1960—Michael Whimore, far-famed adventurer and world traveler, organizes an expedition to explore Jeffersontown, Ky. John Schuhmann, the publisher, announces that the new Joe Miller Joke Book, written by Johnny Narz and Billy Schell, will be off the press. Jack Riley is syndicating a column entitled "How to Reduce—the Hard Way." Earl Gerhard has perplexed Einstein with his theories on the fifth dimension. Jerome Kieffner is president and janitor of the Acme Oil Co. Earl Evans becomes a Junior.

1965—Bob McIntyre and Paul Willenbrink are sports editors of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Dr. Bernard Schoo is a successful brain specialist. Bernie Bowling is a lecturer on political science. Bill Francis wins the Burlington Liars' Club award. Charles Pfeiffer, water boy for the New York Yankees since 1942, sees his 23rd straight World Series. The Yanks win their thirtieth straight series.

1970—Gerald Stratman is a barber and owns a chain of shops operating throughout the United States. Leo Gies is manager of a pool hall. Ray Haragan is now the "meat ball king." August Laemmle makes a fortune by copy-righting his first name and charging calendar publishers to use it. "Lunch" Thompson, now known as "Dinner" Thompson, opens up his new restaurant.

1975—A news item states that the Barber Local No. 6654½ is picketing Earl Englert for unfair trade practices. The complaint charges that Earl, who has worn a burr haircut throughout these years, only gets one hair cut a year and takes business away from the local clip joints. Jack McSweeney is a G-Man and William Wagner is a Supreme Court Justice. Remember Bill Stovall? Now he's mayor of Louisville.

1980—St. X receives a million dollar donation from Charlie Hoerter who has made a fortune in the real estate business. Bob Kennedy owns a half interest in the A. & P. He owns the A. Edwin Huelsman is foreman at the Vinegar Works. Jack Render, fire chief, wins a medal for heroism after rescuing three girls from a burning building on Fourth Street. Wilson Summers' big black colt, Attaboy III., wins the Kentucky Derby.

1985—Bertrand Hardesty, running on the "Honest John" ticket, is elected Governor of the State of Kentucky. His campaign manager is Earl Waltman. Lieutenant-Governor is Frank Simon. Governor Hardesty immediately confers the title of Kentucky Colonel on William Talbot, Fred Hickey and John Schweinhart.

1990—Earl Evans graduates from college—and goes on relief.

A Senior's Diary

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER, 1939

DEAR DIARY:

I'm sorry if I bruised you this morning, but you were the closest thing to me and that darn alarm clock wouldn't shut itself off. School as usual; missed in English and Math (as usual). The afternoon was uninteresting . . . got my homework. I saw the Central City-St. X game tonight. I saw something at the game tonight; and, boy, she had everything—but oomphatically! I haven't met her yet, but—well, I'll keep you posted.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER, 1939

DEAR DIARY:

As each day grows colder, our studies seem to grow harder. Today, along with several other seniors, I got jugged for selling pep rally tickets to underclassmen (the suckers). I strolled downtown after school with a couple of boys and played cowboy at Taylor's. She floated by with a group of girls. I'm sure she's just dying to meet me; she always has that certain gleam in her eyes. I got my homework before going to the study club meeting tonight. Afterwards, a gang of us went to Kelly's, where we played that "7-11" machine; I lost tomorrow's lunch money.

DECEMBER, 1939

DEAR DIARY:

Christmas holidays! Several of us St. X fellows went in town to do our Christmas shopping this morning. Christmas was on every corner and in every store. I saw her in one of the department stores, but she quickly vanished in the milling crowd. This afternoon we went ice skating and sledding in Cherokee Park with some academy girls. They couldn't skate, but—well, neither could we. Confidentially, we didn't go there to skate or sled anyway. Tonight we went down to the club and played cards. I think I got a cold coming home—that barrel didn't have any lining.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1940

DEAR DIARY:

During school today, I was so excited by the prospect of tonight's P. E. P. Club Dance that I could hardly keep my mind on my studies; which, at that, is nothing unusual. I didn't get a date for the dance because I heard she would be there. And she was! And I met her! And . . . ! The dance was a great success; at least until her date caught on to my "wolfing" her.

P. S.—I've changed my philosophy of life; women aren't so bad, after all.

FRIDAY, MARCH, 1940

DEAR DIARY:

Oh, happy day! Her name and mine appeared together in the Xavier News today. And me a member of the Vocation Club. After school some of us St. X. fellows attended the Legion of Decency meeting in the school hall. The fact that several hundred academy girls were there had nothing to do with our going, of course. After the meeting, the gang went down to the bowling alleys and passed the remainder of the afternoon. Tonight I had a date with her; we tripled with two other couples. I scratched the right fender parking the car; that means no car for a month! But I enjoyed the evening—with her. It must be the weather.

TUESDAY, MAY 28, 1940

DEAR DIARY:

This was a review day at school preparatory to the final exams which start tomorrow. It's hard to believe, but I'm actually graduating. School got little of our attention today. We all seem to be trying to get as much pleasure as possible out of these last days. Some of my fellow graduates I'll never see again after June 7 (that's the night we graduate). Which reminds me—the Parent-Teachers Association is giving us seniors an exclusive and free Prom at the school following the Graduation Exercises. Gosh, that makes you feel kind of homesick-like already. Its very evident we seniors don't want to leave. But we'll never really leave. We'll still be here through our associations with the Alumni, the Tiger Boosters Inc., and the Parent-Teachers Association. We couldn't really leave, we couldn't. Not the class of 1940!

the spirit of "X"

School spirit is manifested in all phases of school activities . . . Student Council, Debating, PEP Club, Business Club, Vocation Club, Study Clubs, Science Club—these and others are the organizations that unite students for a common cause.

the student council

The largest and one of the most respected St. Xavier organizations is the Student Council. Composed of honor roll students, and headed by its president, Phillip Muldoon, the 1940 Student Council went on record as one of the most efficient student councils in the history of the school. Other officers of the council, besides President Muldoon, were John Clancy, vice-president; and Bernard Schoo, secretary-treasurer.

the gregson debators

Although the Gregson Debaters didn't win every debate last season, each member of the society gained experience that will be of value to him throughout life. The greatest achievement of the "X" debaters was finishing second to last year's national debating champions, New Albany, in the Kentuckiana High School Debating Tournament, held in New Albany. Officers of the society were William Cormier, president; Bernard Schoo, vice-president; and John Noble, secretary-treasurer.

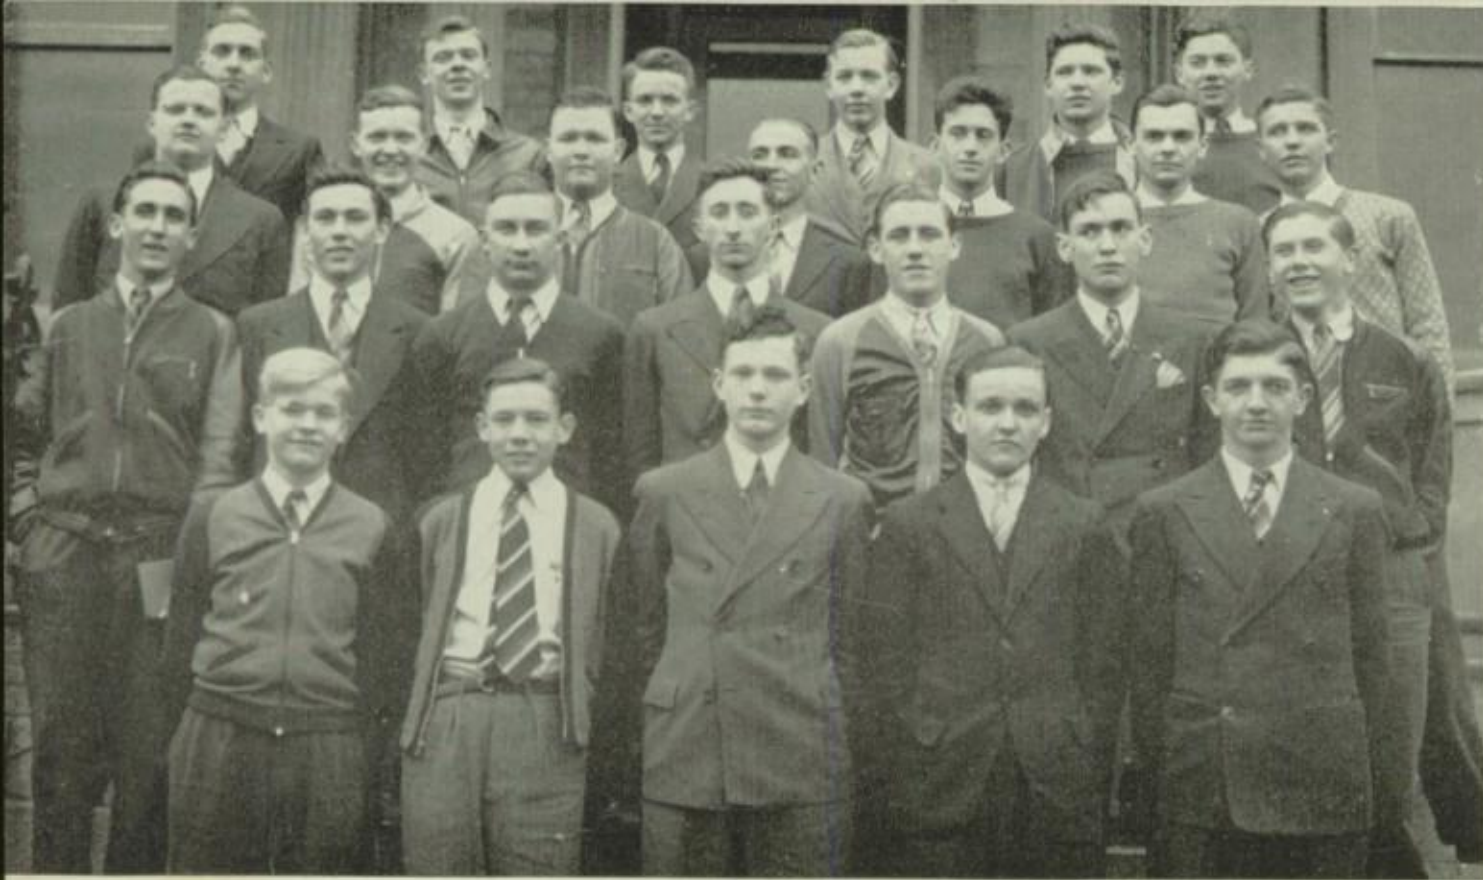

the "X" club

Proud bearers of the emblem that symbolizes St. Xavier, the members of the "X" Club comprise one of the most select groups in the school. The big golden "X" on the green sweater is a token of long hours of drilling on field and court and of exciting moments when strength and skill came through for the glory of St. X.

the pep club

The need for Catholic social activities prompted the organization of the PEP Club last Fall. The Club fulfilled its purpose as it sponsored parties, dances, special pep rallies, and other activities throughout the year. President of the club was Charles Clark. William Talbot was vice-president, and Wallace Spalding was secretary-treasurer.

the business club

The purpose of the Business Club was to aid members to become more thoroughly acquainted with modern office procedure and methods. Brother Reginald was moderator of the group.

the marconi science club

The future Einsteins and Edisons of St. X. were to be found in the Marconi Science Club. Affiliated with the Kentucky Junior Academy of Science, the Marconi Club completed many projects during the year and successfully put on several scientific exhibitions. Officers of the club were: Earl Gerhard, president; Raymond Rieger, vice-president; and William Talbot, secretary-treasurer.

Moderator of the club was Brother Patricius.

the damien study club

The Damien Study Club was one of the two C. S. M. C. study clubs composed entirely of Seniors. This club had for its officers Patrick Lenahan as chief; William Cormier as scribe; and Wallace Spalding as leader. Brother Adalbert, moderator of the club at the beginning of the year, was succeeded by Brother Dennis Joseph after the former underwent an appendectomy.

the st. isaac jogues
study club

Catholic Action through a better knowledge of the truths of the Church was the keynote of both study clubs. The St. Isaac Jogues group was presided over by its moderator Brother John Joseph. Officers of this group were Charles Johnson, chief and William Fox, scribe. Members of both clubs received paladin jewels at the end of the year as a reward for their course of studies.

the band

Always one of the leading band organizations in the city, the St. Xavier band owes much of its success to Brother Simon who has been its conductor now for a number of years. The band furnished music at athletic games throughout the year, gave its annual concert at Columbia Auditorium in February, took part in the State Band Contest.

BROTHER SIMON
C. F. X.

Tiger Boosters Incorporated

The Tiger Boosters Incorporated is made up of alumni, students, and friends of St. X interested in bettering athletics and fostering activities at the school.

The Boosters were organized just this year and have already enrolled five hundred members.

The ten objectives of the Boosters are as follows:

1. Every Tiger Booster a member.
2. Championship teams in all sports.
3. Adequate athletic equipment.
4. Improved athletic field.
5. A larger coaching staff.
6. Athletic field house.
7. Football stadium.
8. Enlargement of intra-school athletics.
9. Promotion of parochial school athletics.
10. Youth development.

Officers of the Boosters are as follows:

Harry A. Ropke, President
Arthur E. Eyl, Vice President.

William A. Reisert, Jr., Secretary
Norbert Raque, Treasurer.

The St. X. Parent Teachers Association

Monthly meetings of the Parent Teachers Association were held in the school gym and afforded a means of contact between the parent and teacher.

The association cooperated with the student body and school in general to make many affairs a success and sponsored the Fall Festival last November.

Officers of the P.T.A. were:

J. Lawrence Willenbrink, President.

Wallace W. Spalding, Vice President

Mrs. John J. Lippy, Secretary

St. Xavier Publications

THE RELIGIOUS BULLETIN

The St. Xavier Religious Bulletin, published weekly and edited by the Rev. Brother John Joseph, C.F.X., consists of four pages mimeographed, modeled after the religious bulletin of the University of Notre Dame. This year was the second year for the bulletin here at St. X.

The Bulletin featured suggestions and advice, both spiritual and practical. Space was given to promoting greater school spirit among the boys. Messages by members of the Senior Class were published, contests were sponsored, and each boy looked forward to receiving the paper each Friday morning.

Although small-sized, the St. Xavier Religious Bulletin was large enough to reach into every boy's heart and instill there those practical ideals essential to Catholic manhood.

THE XAVIER NEWS

Five issues of the "News," St. Xavier student publication, were issued during the year. Each issue consisted of eight pages tabloid size, and contained articles on school events and literary offerings from various students.

Editor of the "News" this year was Charlie Johnson. Paul Willenbrink and Bob McIntyre served as sports editors and the Rev. Brother Rudolph, C.F.X., was faculty adviser. Members of the staff were: Earl Evans, James Kessinger, Bill Talbot, Fred McGill, Gerald Stratman, Bernie Schoo, Richard Curran, Charles Clark, Johnny Narz, Billy Schell, Wallace Spalding, Lawrence Willenbrink, Richard Spalding, Jim Finnegan and Bill Cormier.

THE TIGER

This issue of the "Tiger" marks the first publication of the book since 1929, although a special Senior issue of the Xavier News published last year took the form of a yearbook.

Plans for the book were laid early in the year and a subscription drive was begun soon after Easter.

Many details of the book were decided by a council of representatives from the various Senior classes.

Editor of the "Tiger" is Charlie Johnson. Bill Talbot is assistant editor.

the "tiger" goes to pep dance.

These snaps taken by Jack Schuhmann show many familiar scenes at one of the dances sponsored during the year by the PEP Club, the Spring Dance given in April at Casa Madrid. Need we add, that the dance was a success?

sportsmanship

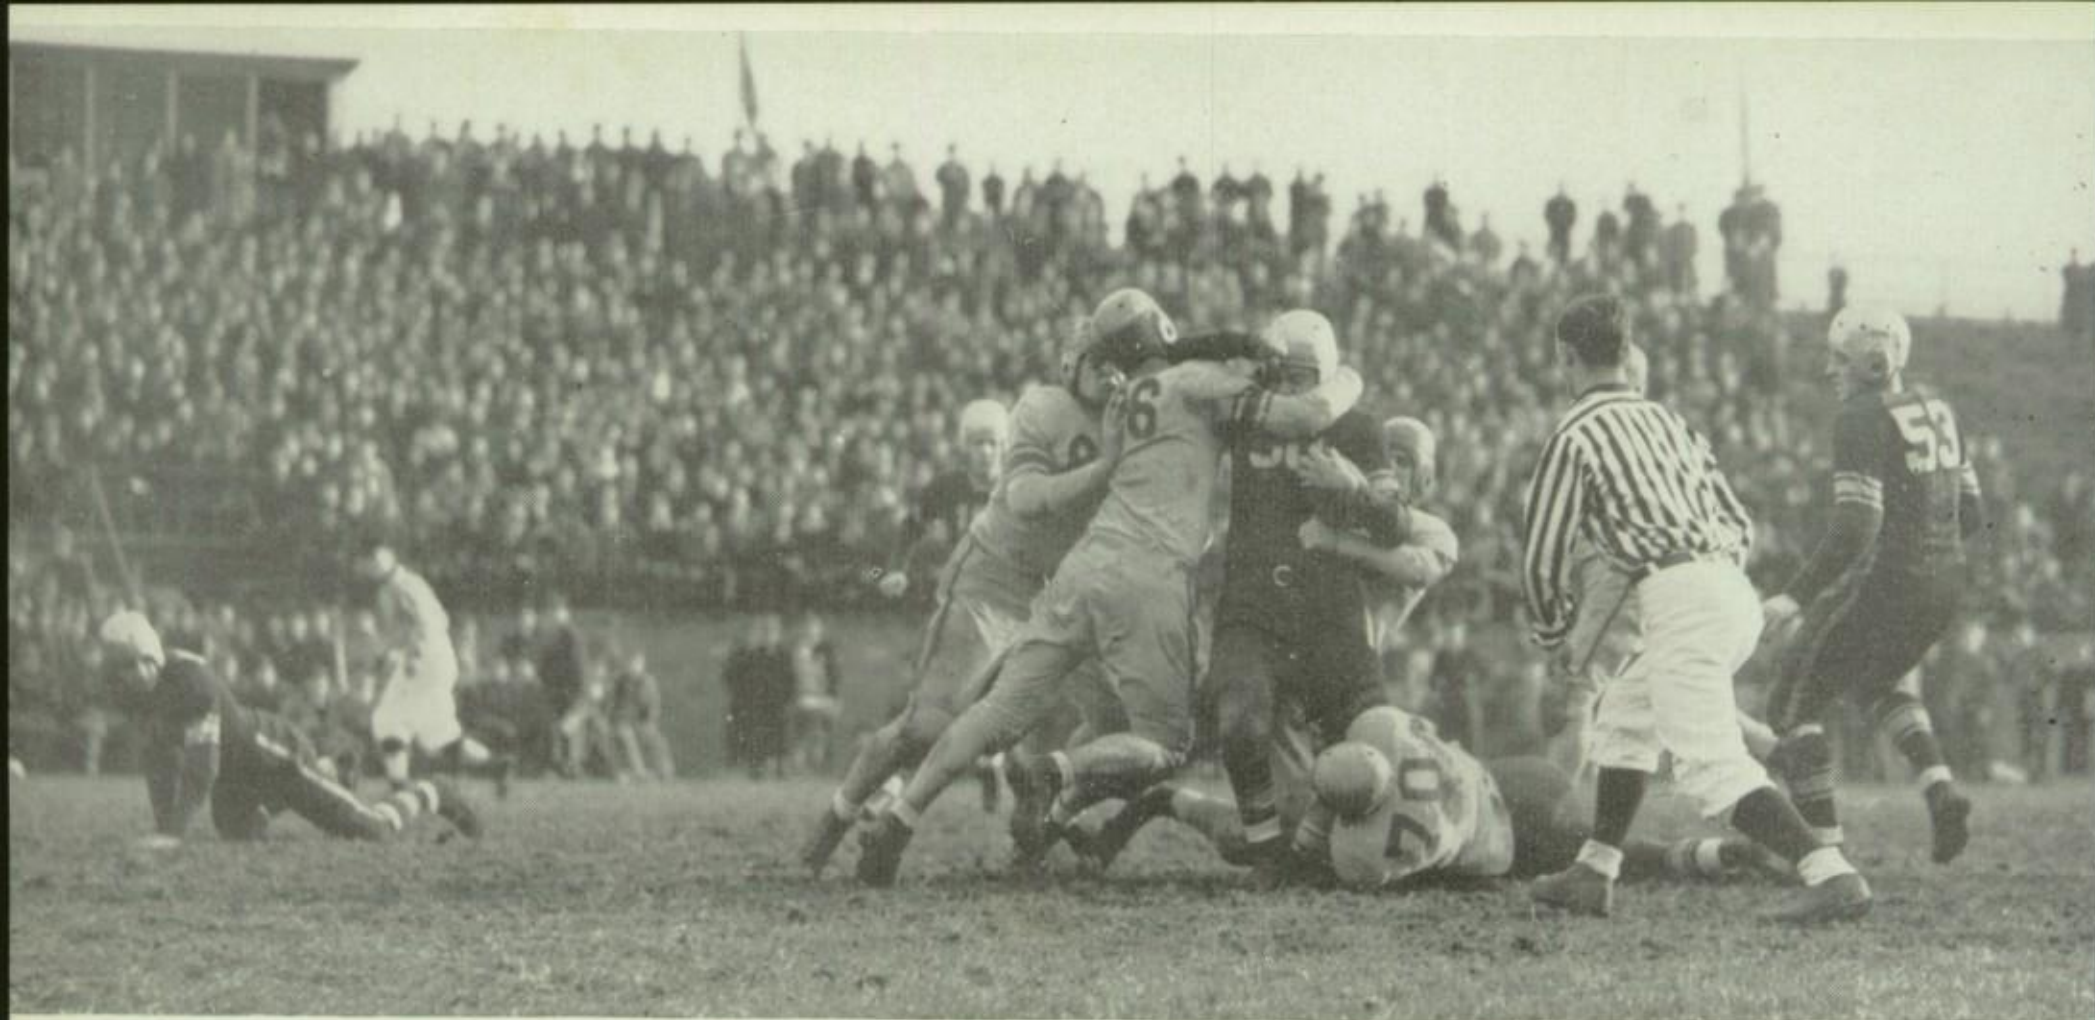

Sportsmanship is that gentlemanly attitude which always respects the Golden Rule, no matter what the price of the game...that trait so greatly admired on the athletic field, so conscientiously applied on the playing field of life...that fairness of fight that distinguishes the MAN.

King Football rules the Fall.

fight team fight

...the Tiger...fighting and clawing from the opening whistle...wielding all force against the enemy, and keeping all blows above the belt...no wonder that a St. X. byword has become: "A St. X. team may be outplayed, but it is never outfought".

the 1939 football squad

.....men all.....hard and strong because theirs were the hardest knocks.....sturdy youths because they endured the dust, grit, sweat, heat, and cold rain of months of practice and of long, strenuous hours of competition.....not the greatest team in X.
history, one of the lightest, the 1939 squad headed by Captain Pat Lenahan will go down as one of the fightingest bands ever to wear the Green and Gold.

the tiger gains

...it's the Tiger around end, heading for the goal!... Scorch carrying the ball in the Male-St. X. game.... The 1939 squad exemplified St. X. traditions of sportsmanship and the never-say-die spirit of the Tiger.

touchdown!

. . . another tally for the Green and Gold of St. X! . . . this time against the former national champion duPont Manual squad . . . Thompson going over for the first touchdown against Manual in seven years . . . Manual won the game however, 32-7.

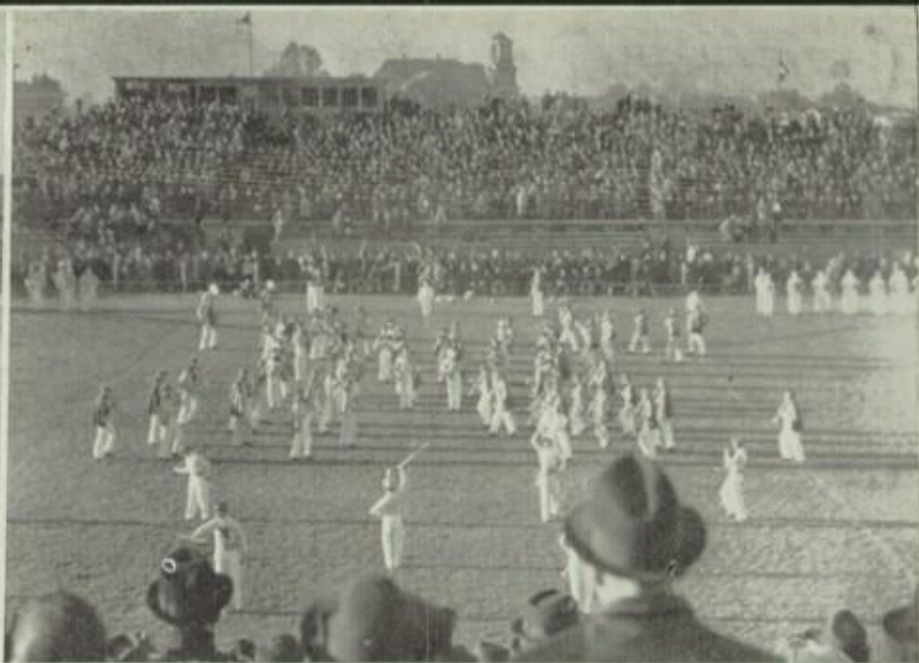

teamwork

all aboard

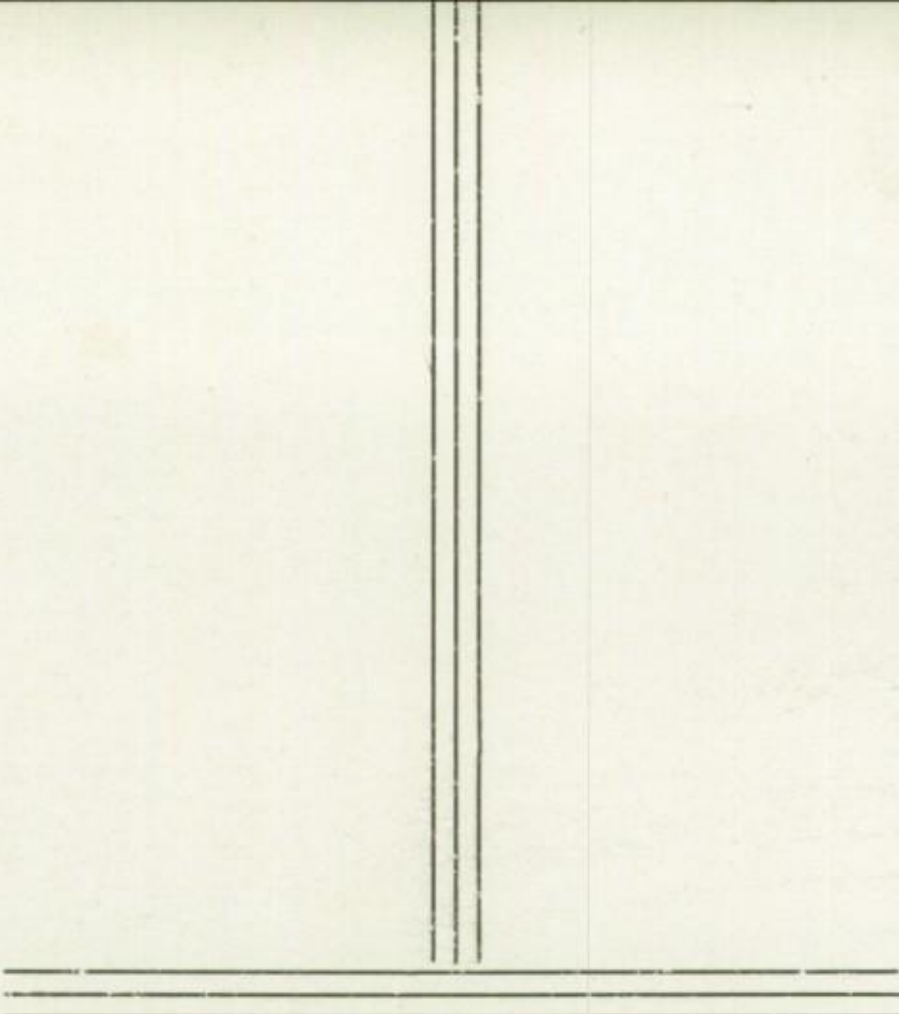

"Betsy Ann", the old Model-T owned by Bill Cormier, did its duty during the football season last year, as this picture will testify. Not only employed as a means of transportation between the school and Alumni Field, old "Betsy" also was utilized as a meat chopper, atom smasher, and steam roller. We dedicate this page to the memory of "Betsy Ann".

st. x. hi

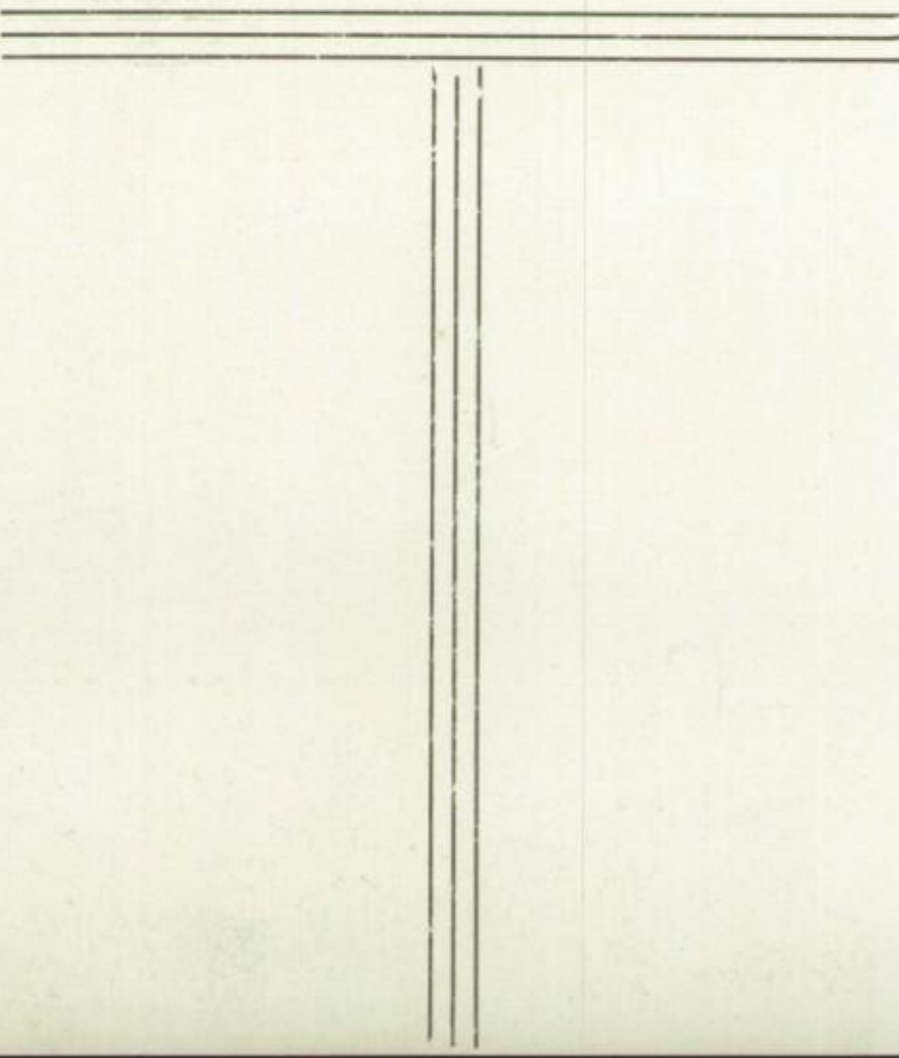

St. X. Hi, St. X. Hi, you're the best of schools around
And we're proud of the Green and the Gold.
St. X. Hi, St. X. Hi, all your rivals you astound
When the feats of the Tigers are told.
And we'll stay on top, we'll battle till we drop
Holding our banner on high,
And we'll fight, fight, fight, for Xavier and the right.
For the Tigers we'll do and we'll die.
For the Tigers we'll do and we'll die.

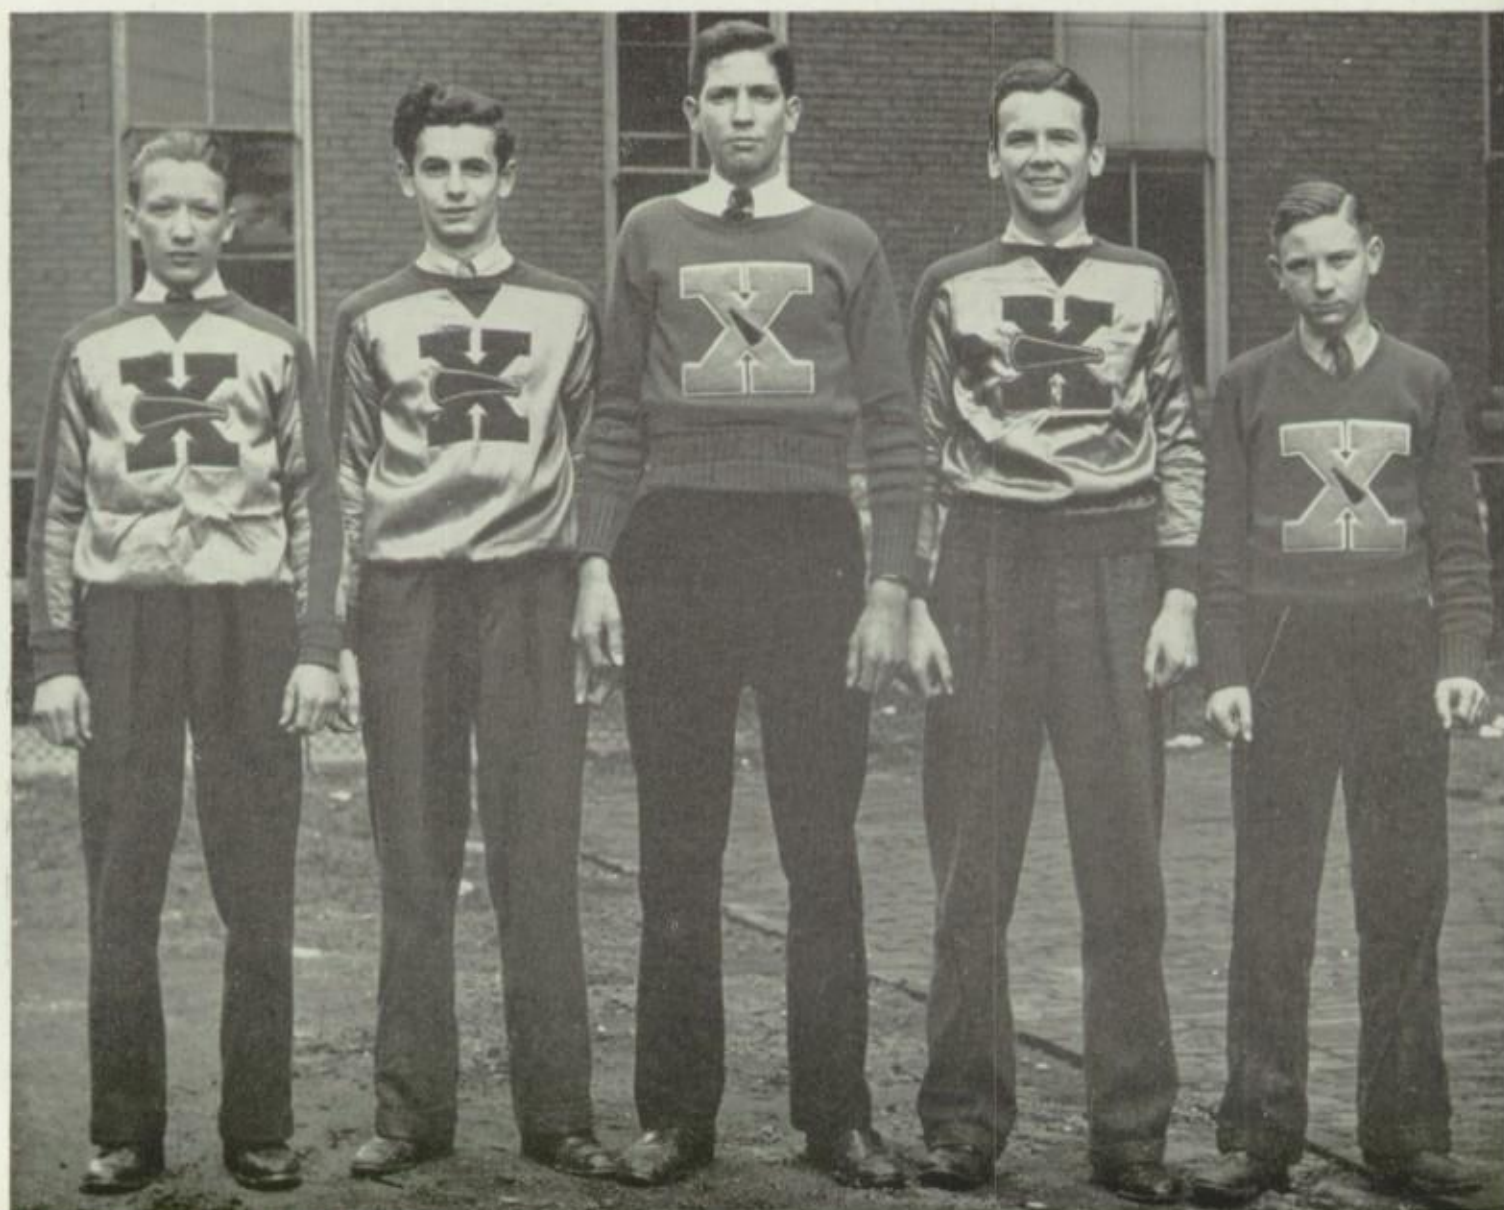

green and gold

Green and Gold means victory
Oh, see our colors in array
Just watch our team march down the field
For we are out to win to-day.
But if by chance unto defeat we fall
We will be loyal just the same,
And we will Fight, Fight, Fight
For the Green and Gold, our colors
Dear old St. X. bless her name.

cheer leaders

What's an athletic contest or pep rally without cheers? And what are cheers without cheer leaders? These five green and gold bedecked gentlemen were the men who led the St. X. cheering section last year. They are: Mickey McGrath, Bill Stansbury, Bill Fleece, Bill Hyland, and Tad Dumstorf.

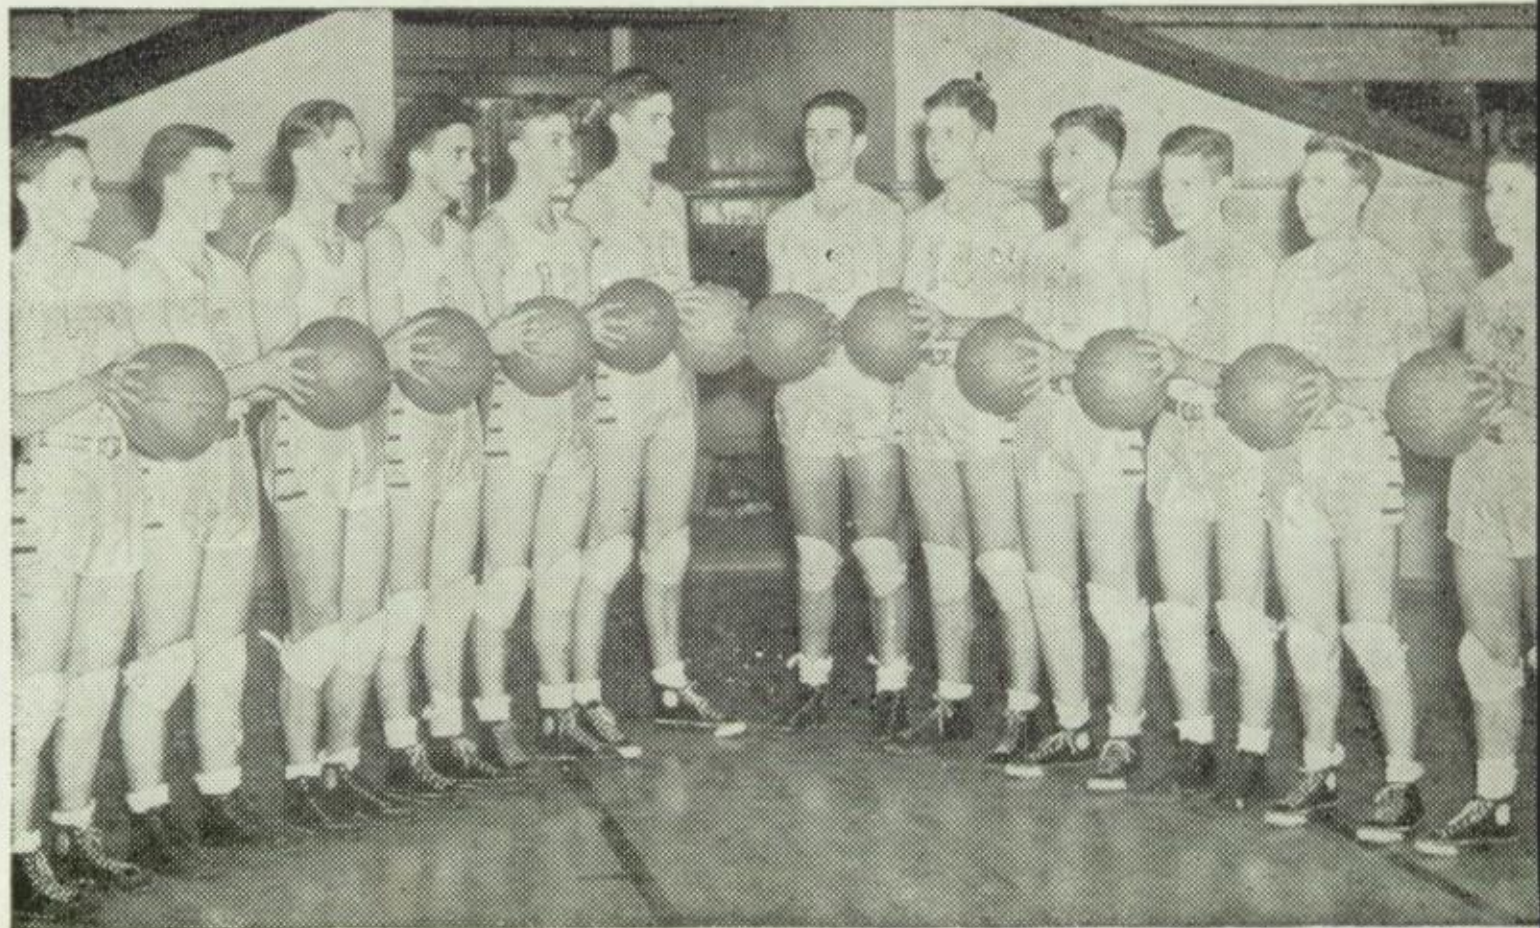

bob schuhmann

Coach of two national Catholic championship teams since his stay here at St. X., Bob Schuhmann is recognized as one of the best basketball coaches in these parts. Builder of great teams, builder of men, master of teamwork and precision, Bob Schuhmann is one name that St. X. will never forget.

the team

Here they are . . . twelve staunch defenders of Green and Gold basketball laurels. Captained by Tommy Geisler, veteran of three seasons, the 1940 basketekers gave St. X. fans thrills aplenty as they took the city championship, the Seventh Regional Tournament, and fought gamely in the State Tournament and Eastern States Invitational.

The Tiger on the march. . . . Included among the games played out of town by the Green and Gold basketballers was a game played in the Xavier Fieldhouse, Cincinnati, against Holmes High of Covington. The Tiger came out on top by a score of 24 to 20. These snap shots were taken on the trip.

fight, st. xavier

Fight, St. Xavier! Fight, St. Xavier!
Loyal hearts and bold!
Strong and faithful and courageous
To the Green and Gold.
Foes molest us, danger tests us,
Still our cry will be,
Onward you Xavier men
To VICTORY !

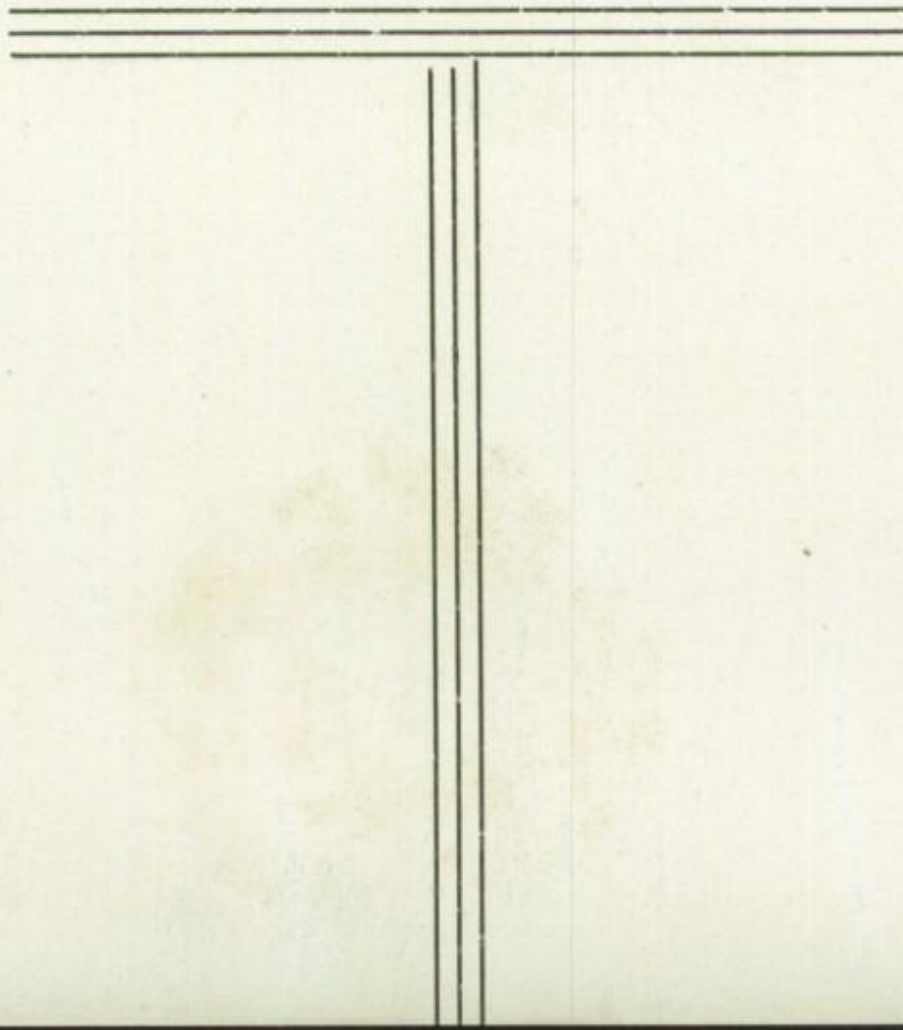

sons of xavier

On, Sons of Xavier, to the triumph we march,
Waving the Green and Gold, that banner we love.
On Broadway's pride, you men of courage and starch,
And up—up—flag of Xavier—soar high above.

On, Sons of Xavier, all your foes are dismayed,
Meeting the Green and Gold, those colors so gay,
On, sons of Boone and Lincoln, staunchly you're made,
So shout—shout—Men of X.—for victory to-day.

spring sports

Spring Sports flourished more than ever this year at "X". Although the track team (pictured above) didn't break any records, it aroused interest in this sport which had been dormant for many years at this school. The baseball team (see below) gave a good account of itself in the Falls City High School Baseball League, which was organized this spring, while other sports, not represented in this section, but which received great interest from students were tennis, golf, table tennis, and bowling.

Mac's Sports Review

Successful Cage Season Follows Mediocre Grid Campaign; Spring Sports Grow At St. Xavier In 1940.

By BOB McINTYRE '40

Every year, as June rolls around, a delegation of high-class athletes are separated from their Alma Mater by the graduation route, and a new bunch of talent is to succeed the fellows of the preceding year. This year, the Bengals, successful in some sports and not so in others, lose an honorable lot of athletes, who roamed the gridiron, cage and diamond for old X. Not accounting for this, however, the grid season was somewhat mediocre, with the Green and Gold gridders winning their first game of the season over Central City by a lopsided score of 26-0, and then proceeding to bow in 7 out of 8 of their remaining encounters, including setbacks at the hands of Manual, 32-7 and Male, 13-0. With Coaches Gröne and Schuhmann as pilots, the Tigers looked exceptionally well last fall, but injury riddled the Tiger's hopes. They did accomplish several things however. They scored on the Reds of Manual for the first time in several years when they scored the first marker in the Manual game only to have the Reds rally and win 32-7. After holding their other arch-rival scoreless for three quarters and a large part of the final period, the Tigers were hard pressed and bowed 13-0.

Jack Fallot and "Heinie" Kauffman, co-captains of the '40 grid team will succeed Pat Lenahan at the Tiger captaincy. Along with veterans of the previous campaign and new material coming up, these fellows should defeat both Male and Manual in the coming season which promises to be a thrill.

Captain Pat Lenahan and "Shieky" Klarer represented St. X in the East-West game in Lexington and received honorable recognition on the All-State team.

So much for football, and what about the basketball season of '39-40? As a custom, in these troubled times, the Cagesters of X rolled to another successful basketball year and again for the fourth consecutive season representing the Seventh Region in the State Finals at Lexington. The Tigers of Bob Schuhmann won 18 of their 26 games, including all games played. Norb Walsh led the city scorers and Captain Geisler was second. The entire team performed remarkably throughout the whole season. Skeeter Keiffner and Captain elect Owen Weis also showed up well in most of the games, off-setting many of the taller teams which the gallant Tigers opposed. Although they lost out in both the State and National Catholic meets, the Tigers played brilliant ball in both contests. Lack of height and injuries were the main causes of the downfall. However another year faces Coach Schuhmann, and in order to cope with the pot-shotter of the Bluegrass and the near-by states he must build that height which he seems to have from the looks of rookies coming up the ladder from the minor teams. Along with these, and such able veterans as Captain Weis, Greene, Nolan, Thompson, Warren, Bell, Gelthaus and Schroer Bob should have a great and successful year. Just wait.

Spring sports are becoming more and more popular and wide-spread at St. X. The Baseballers started the season off quietly, but soon found the pace and began to tear down the opposition. St. X had a quite successful net season, advancing to the city play-off with the Purples of Male and losing, 4-3. The track team was more or less mediocre, but good talent is in view for the succeeding season.

HIGHLIGHTS OF '39-'40 SEASON

Tigers start grid season with rollicking victory over Central City by 26-0, featuring some brilliant plays by Pat Lenahan . . . Graven and Weis' long runs against Hazard . . . Jackie Thompson pushed the pigskin over the Manual goal-line, scoring for the first time in several years in bowing to the Reds by 32-7 . . . Some great defensive play in the Male-X game staves off Male rallies, with Lady Luck giving the Purples a 13-0 victory . . . In the cage picture, Knobby Walsh rallies to score 18 points against Valley, a game in which the Tigers won, 47-37.

. . . Alumni held to 39-41 victory by scrappy Tigers . . . Tigers defeat Male in the 7th Regional final and earn trip to Lexington . . . Tommy Geisler goes on a scoring rampage and counts 14 points against Hazel Green . . . And many more thrills have the Tiger fans witnessed, only to mention a few, in the 1939-40 season, in every department of athletics, and can expect many more in the years to come. Until then, adios.

The season's record reads as follows:

September 24.....	St. X	0—Joliet 13
September 26.....	St. X	26—Central City 0
October 7.....	St. X	27—Hazard 0
October 13.....	St. X	0—Paducah 33
October 20.....	St. X	0—Knoxville 6
October 28.....	St. X	7—Manual 32
November 4.....	St. X	6—Ashland 18
November 11.....	St. X	0—Male 13
November 30.....	St. X	7—New Albany 13

The complete record of the Tiger wins and losses follow:

One of the lesser sports here that received much interest from students was bowling. A league made up of teams from Male, Manual, and St. X was formed and played over a number of weeks. The St. X team was the victor.

On the team were Leo Gies, Bob Gephart, Charlie Steier, Bob Schreck, and Mike Gast. Gast led the league with a 184 pin average.

Coached by Brother Patricius, the golf team represented the Green and Gold in meets with other scholastic teams of this area.

fun time

Happy days were high school days....Fun and laughter marked many moments.... moments such as captured by the snapshots on the following pages. We laughed at many a joke, too, during our four year stay at "X", so we have added two pages of humorous bits such as you might have enjoyed during these past years.

merrily we roll along

Five boys and a car... the open road beckons. This car, property of John David is typical of the cars owned by St. X. Seniors. Not too large, not too small, economical to operate, hardly enough to bear the owner's tinkering... these are some of the requirements for a senior's car.

BILLY FRANCIS

In-or-outer shirts... key chains and charms
... saddle oxfords... pleated slacks...
multicolored shirts... crew neck and sleeveless sweaters... burr hair cuts... these were the style during our final year. On these two pages are glimpses of these styles

pleasant fellows

A smile is always a welcome asset to any boy. Here are four fellows who are noted for their smiles and pleasant dispositions. Above is Jack Schwab. On the opposite page are Charlie Steier and the two co-captains of next year's football squad, Jack Fallot and "Heinie" Kaufman.

STEIER

And The Tiger Groaned

1936 - 1937 We were pretty busy in our first year, but we probably still had time to laugh at some of these:

He: "Pardon me, but your stockings are wrinkled."

She: "You brute, I have no stockings on."

* * * *

Judge: "You are accused of vagrancy, panhandling, assault with intent to rob, resisting an officer, and countless minor charges. Have you ever earned an honest dollar in your life?"

Prisoner: "Yes, your honor. I voted for you at the last election."

* * * *

First Steno: "I bet you hated to hear that alarm clock ring this morning."

Second Steno: "I'll say I did. It woke mother up just as I was getting in the house."

* * * *

New Bride: "Just think, dear, I won a medal at the Cooking School."

Hubby: "Wonderful, my dear. What's this I'm eating?"

New Bride: "Guess!"

Hubby: "The medal?"

* * * *

Hubby: "Where in the world is my clean shirt?"

Wife: "I put it on the clothes horse."

Hubby: "That's great. What odds did you get?"

1937 - 1938 Although we had advanced one year along the road to graduation, as Sophomores, we still didn't know how to recognize a good joke and thus we probably laughed at one of the following:

Doctor: "You cough much easier this morning."

Patient: "I ought to, I've been practicing all night."

* * * *

Student: "I'd like to have this car fixed."

Mechanic: "Can't buddy. We're not manufacturers."

* * * *

Mandy: "Mrs. Smith, may I take dese here grape fruit peelings wif me?"

Mrs. Smith: "Why sure, Mandy. But why don't you take some grape fruit instead?"

Mandy: "No mum, thank you. These here peelings makes our garbage look so stylish."

* * * *

We know a guy so dumb, he thinks the White House spokesman is the fellow who fixes the wheels on the Presidential automobile.

* * * *

Tommy: "My uncle plays the piano by ear."

George: "Aw shucks, that's nothin'. My grandpa fiddles with his whiskers."

* * * *

Sweet young thing: "Would you give a dime to help the Old Ladies Home?"

Fresh guy: "What! Are they out again?"

1938 - 1939 These were some of the jokes that followed us during our Junior year.

Teacher: "Johnny, give me an example of rigid economy."

Johnny: "A dead Scotchman, teacher."

* * * *

There was a young German named Stein,
Who worked in an Illinois mine.
One day the fuse didn't work,
So he gave it a jerk

—And all they found was his watch on the Rhine.

* * * *

The professor rapped on the desk and shouted: "Gentlemen—order."

The entire class yelled, "Beer."

"Waiter."

"Yes, sir."

"Have you ever been to the Zoo?"

"No, sir."

"Well, you ought to go some time.
You'd get a kick out of watching the turtles zip past."

* * * *

His first day on the job, the colored hall boy dashed excitedly up to the register desk.

"De man in room seven has done hang himself."

"Hanged himself!" the clerk exclaimed.

"Did you cut him down?"

"No suh! He ain't dead yet."

1939 - 1940 And not even the so-called dignified Seniors were too dignified to laugh at a joke—a joke such as one of these (we hope).

An Australian during the World War tried to enlist at Sydney. He was refused by the doctor on account of bad feet.

Next morning he presented himself
again before the examining doctor:

"It's no use; I can't take you. You couldn't stand the marching," said the medico, "but why are you so insistent?"

"Well, Doc," said the other, "I walked 187 miles to get here and I sorta hate to walk back."

* * * *

Oswald called a hammer a hammer until he hit his finger with it.

"I wish some brainy guy who yearns

Upon this world to leave his mark,
Would cross our flies with lightning bugs

So I could swat them in the dark."

* * * *

Judge: "You can take your choice—
ten dollars or ten days."

Prisoner (still in a foggy condition):
"I'll take the money, your honor."

* * * *

Sammy: "I see good in all things.

Oscar: "Can you see good in a fog?"
